

THE BUILDING PROCESS ALLIANCE
www.buildingprocessalliance.com

TREEHOUSE COMPETITION

Robert Walsh, Architect, 2001, published 2006 in Treehouses in Paradise, by David Greenberg

This design won and award in an international treehouse design competition. They were intended to be built as exotic vacation destinations in tropical island locations throughout the South Pacific. It includes a bathroom a bedroom and a kitchen, as well as an open living space. The curving translucent canvas roof defines the space and the structure.